LUXURY WATERFRONT LIVING

THE MURRAY HOMES EXPERIENCE

INTEGRITY. EXPERIENCE. SUPERIOR CRAFTSMANSHIP. That's why more than 85 clients from around the nation and around the world have entrusted luxury custom builder Murray Homes to create their dream Florida waterfront residences. The Murray Homes Experience goes far beyond that of the usual builder. It's all about building relationships: really listening to each client, counseling them on the appropriate architect for their needs, matching them to the best-fitting site for their plans, and even advising them on the ease of future marketability. "It's a holistic approach," says company president Steve Murray. "Our team puts the customer at the center of everything we do."

1

▶ From coastal contemporary to traditional to West Indies inspired, we build beautiful, one-of-a-kind residences influenced by both European and American architectural styles.

2

▶ Murray Homes can be found in the most spectacular waterfront neighborhoods around gorgeous, tropical Sarasota, Fl.

3

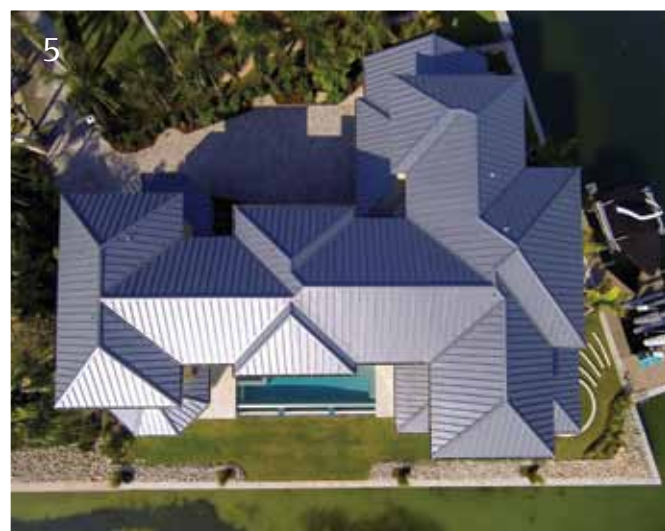

▶ Our team understands that sophisticated details and finishes convey warmth and personality, and make your home truly custom.

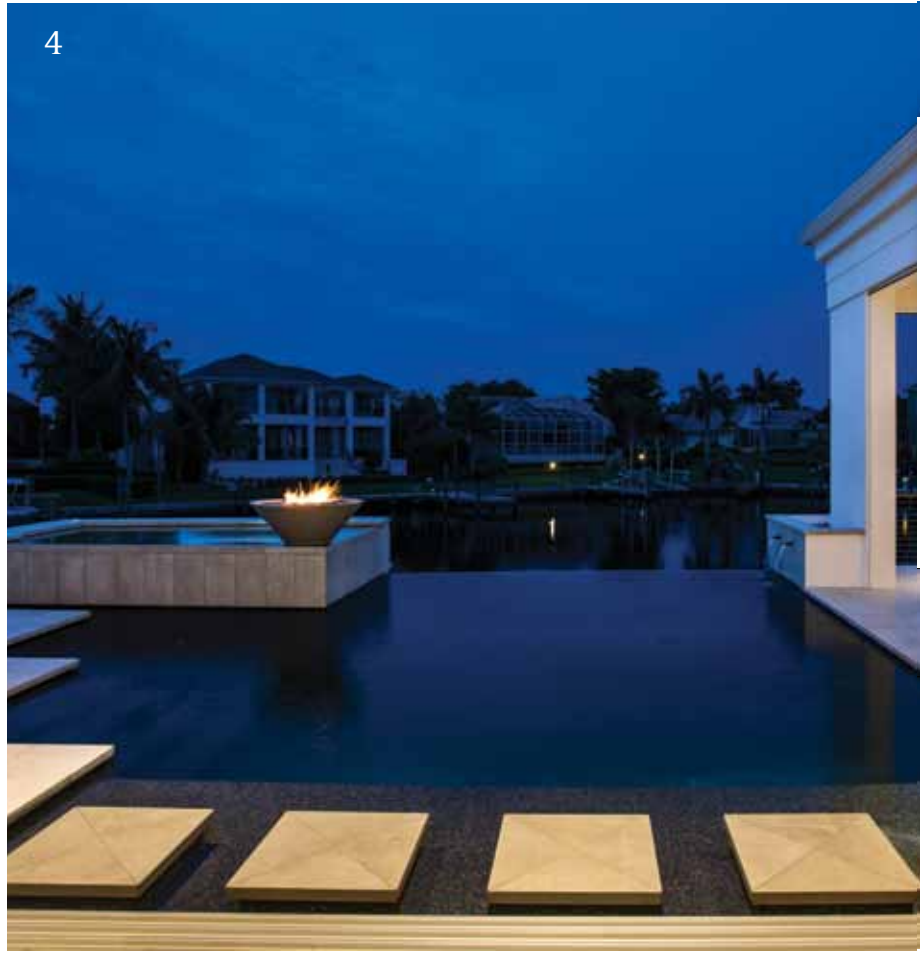

4

▶ We create the Florida lifestyle of your dreams.

5

▶ The highest quality is built into every Murray home. Quality control checks of our subcontractors at every stage of construction ensure it.

WE SET THE TRENDS

STEVE MURRAY LEARNED THE LUXURY custom home building business from his father, John, a master builder of luxury homes in their native London for more than 30 years. Since bringing Murray Homes to Sarasota in 1999, they've built more than 85 unique custom waterfront residences in the finest neighborhoods, including Longboat Key, Bird Key, Harbor Acres and Casey Key.

It's no wonder that they have a national and international clientele. "We understand where the market is going, and we bring a global perspective on design trends, products and finishes," says Steve.

1

▶ Vision guides us. Among our outstanding projects is a recent $2-million renovation on Casey Key. "We enjoy a challenge," says Steve Murray.

2

▶ Our pools feature the latest designs and technology for the ultimate in outdoor living.

3

▶ Luxury and the latest amenities are combined to offer kitchens that reflect our clients' lifestyles.

4

▶ Details are critical. We're proud of our strong long-term relationships with our subcontractors, and with our customers.

5

▶ The Wall Street Journal named this Murray Homes-built Longboat Key residence a finalist in its national 2013 Home of the Year competition.

"We like working with professionals who have our clients' best interests at heart, and Murray Homes fulfills that role completely. From beginning to end we like the process to be fun for our clients, and Murray's expertise makes that possible."

1

▶ Passion drives the Murray Homes Experience. Steve Murray, his wife Bev, who manages Murray Realty, and their three sons, Will, Jack, and Oliver, enjoy exploring Sarasota's beautiful waters by boat.

2

▶ Murray Homes and Murray Realty are headquartered downtown in a landmark building designed by famed Sarasota School of Architecture architect Victor Lundy.

3

▶ This design was inspired by the Dominican home of fashion designer Oscar de la Renta. The house won Best Overall Home Category for the SRQ 2013 Home of the Year award.
